JAMES E. HIBBS. There is not a better known or more highly esteemed citizen of Booths Creek District of Taylor County than James E. Hibbs, farmer, and a resident of the county for over fifty-five years. He has been a capable manager of his own affairs, has been faithful to his obligations in the community, and he has justly earned the confidence of all with whom he has been associated.

His great-great-grandfather, a Pennsylvanian, established the family in West Virginia, locating on the waters of Painterlick Run in Marion County, where he remained until death and was buried in the Wilson graveyard.

Jacob's son, William Hibbs, was a farmer in the same region, lived without official or military service, and at his death he was buried in the Toothman private cemetery. By his marriage to Lovicy Wildman he had the following children: Samuel, mentioned below; Bettie, who married John Reed; Millie, who became the wife of David Haynes; John; William, who was a Union soldier and lived in Marion County; Thomas, also a soldier of the Union Army; Ellen, who married Alfred Ammons; Arthelia, who married Arch Walls; Phoebe and Lovicy, who married brothers, Zimri and Wesley Ammons.

Samuel Hibbs, father of James E., was reared in Marion County, had little opportunity to secure an education, and from that county moved to Ritchie and some years later to Taylor County. He was an active member of the Methodist Church, and died May 29, 1916, at the advanced age of eighty-six. He married Sarah Yost, daughter of David Yost, and she passed away some years before her husband, being the mother of only two children, James E. and Lovicy Ellen, who died unmarried.

James E. Hibbs had an unusually limited family relationship even for a man of his years. He has neither parents, brother or sister, nor children of his own. He was born in Ritchie County, August 31, 1858, and became a resident of Taylor County with his parents in April, 1866. He grew up on the farm where he lives today, attended a school on Booths Creek nearby, and since early manhood his business has been with the farm. The chief feature of his enterprise has been the growing and grazing of stock, cattle and sheep, and this line of business still demands his efforts and the fruit of his long experience.

Mr. Hibbs is sincerely interested in the growth and advancement of his community, and is president of the Board of Education for Booths Creek District. He served about twenty years as justice of the peace of his district. In politics he is a democrat, casting his first vote for General Hancock in 1880, and twice gave a ballot to Cleveland and twice to Mr. Wilson. Fraternally he is affiliated with Pruntytown Lodge of the Odd Fellows and with the Loyal Order of Moose at Grafton.

In Taylor County, November 18, 1880, he married Miss Frances J. Humphreys. She was born in the Pleasant Hill locality of Ritchie County, daughter of Dr. J. B. and Nancy (Gaines) Humphreys. Her father, who came to West Virginia from Old Virginia, was a capable physician, and spent the last twenty years of his life in the Booths Creek District of Taylor County. He and his wife are buried in the Greenlawn Cemetery at Clarksburg. Their children were: Mary, wife of Sherman Strother, of Clarksburg; Virginia, wife of E. Y. McElroy, of Clarksburg; Mrs. Hibbs; and Thomas J., of Wheeling. Without children of their own, Mr. and Mrs. Hibbs opened the doors of their home and their hearts as well to several children otherwise homeless. These children had the benefit of a hospitable home and superior education and moral training. One of them now lives in Ohio. Three others, a brother and two sisters, still comprise the home circle of Mr. and Mrs. Hibbs

LACY HIBBS was born November 7, 1826, in Redstone township, Fayette county, Penna, on the old Hibbs farm where he was raised and attended schools of the township. Educational advantages were quite limited in those days, and the course of study was even more so. The first business he followed was that of farming in North Union township, and has continued at that business all of his life and now owns one hundred and twenty six acres of land near Searights in Menallen township. He is a member of the Presbyterian church of New Salem, and his wife and family are also members of the same church. He is an exemplary man and a good citizen, and is firm in the democratic faith. He was elected poorhouse director in 1868.

His first wife was Mary Margaret Poundstone, a daughter of Philip Poundstone of German township. They had two children: Eunice Violet Hibbs, born in 1852 and living with her father; and John Newton Hibbs, born June 9, 1859, married Lizzie Ball and has one child, Earnest Hibbs.

His second wife was Mrs Harriet A Kerr; they were married March 8, 1866. They have one child: Olive Hibbs, born May 28, 1869, who is a teacher. Mrs Hibbs was the daughter of Samuel Cochran, born in Fayette county in 1788, and Elizabeth Porter Cochran, his wife, a daughter of John Porter who lived near Dunlap's creek. Her maternal grandmother was Margaret Baird.

Lacy Hibbs is the son of John Hibbs and Jane Finley Hibbs, who were married April 12, 1821. John Hibbs was born January 1, 1791, and died January 14, 1881. Jane Finley Hibbs was born June 7, 1802 (for her family see Ebenezer Finley).

Lacy Hibbs, grandfather of the subject of sketch, was born in 1768 in Cumberland county, Penna, afterwards Bedford county, then Westmoreland county, and now Greene county. He married Sara Craft, a member of the Fayette county Crafts.
